II. NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Gustavo Orta addressed the board and spoke about Miami Dade College. Ana Maria Hess is the President of the Hialeah Campus who would like to inaugurate, maybe in January, to see if they can do an Exhibit of the Arts in Hialeah with the help of the City of Hialeah Cultural Affairs Board.

Ms. Lisa Setrini-Espinosa requested to see if we can get a monthly calendar from the Goodlet Theater. She would like to see if the board can support any performing events that are going on there. Ms. Carmen Hernandez, Secretary of the board, will be contacting Mr. Luis Fernandez who is in charge of the Theater for this information.

III. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

A. Photography Contest

Ms. Naveiras would like to thank the Special Events Department for all their support with this event. She expressed how everyone needs to hear positive feedback from a job well done. All Board members received their copies of the applications and flyers to distribute. The event is being aired on City of Hialeah Channel 77 through Comcast. Within the next couple of weeks we should be receiving entries. They will be displayed at City Hall, 3rd floor, through September 19, 2014. Judges will be chosen at next scheduled meeting since a few of our members were unable to attend today's meeting. Ms. Naveiras went over all the rules and regulations once again, all is in order.

IV. FINISHED BUSINESS

Ms. Naveiras advised the board that she had an informal conversation with the Mayor at an event they attended on August 9th. The Mayor told her he would like to meet with the Cultural Affairs Board in the near future to share some special things that will be happening in Hialeah as far as construction is concerned dealing with the arts.

Ms. Naveiras expressed the importance of the board contributing to the city as far as attendance at every meeting as well as any events they sponsor.
